

Elmore Vale Medical Centre Internet and Email policy

Current as of: 10 September 2023

Elmore Vale Medical Centre recognizes the practice team requires access to email and the internet to assist in the efficient and safe delivery of healthcare services to our patients. Our clinic supports the right of staff to have access to reasonable personal use of the internet and email communications in the workplace using the devices and networks provided by the practice.

Purpose and objectives

This policy sets out guidelines for acceptable use of internet and email by the practice team, contractors, and other staff of Elmore Vale Medical Centre. Internet and email are provided primarily to assist the team perform their duties of employment.

Scope

This internet and email policy applies to the practice team, contractors and other staff of our clinic who access the internet and email on practice owned devices, including, but not limited to 2 computers in reception area, one computer in nurse room, one computer each in Room 1, 2 and 3 to perform their work.

Use of the internet by the practice team, contractors and other staff is permitted and encouraged where this supports the goals and objectives of our clinic. Access to the internet is a privilege and the practice team, contractors and other staff must adhere to this policy.

Violation of these policies could result in

- disciplinary and/or legal action
- termination of employment
- the practice team, contractors and other staff being held personally liable for damages caused by any violations of this policy.

All employees are required to confirm they have understood and agree to abide by this email and internet policy.

Policy content

The practice team, contractors and other staff may use the internet and email access provided by Elmore Vale Medical Centre for:

- any work and work-related purposes
- limited personal use.
- more extended personal use under specific circumstances (see below)

Limited personal use of email and internet

Limited personal use is permitted where it:

- is infrequent and brief use (such as conducting a brief online bank transaction, paying a bill, sending a brief personal email, similar to making a brief personal phone call)
- does not interfere with the duties of the practice team, contractors, and other staff.

Elermore Vale Medical Centre

- does not interfere with the operation of our clinic.
- does not compromise the security of our clinic.
- does not impact on our clinic electronic storage capacity.
- does not decrease our clinic network performance.
- does not incur any additional expense for our clinic.
- does not violate any legislation.
- does not compromise any confidentiality requirements of our clinic.

Unacceptable internet and email use

The practice team, contractors and other staff may not use internet or email access provided by Elermore Vale Medical Centre to perform:

- creating or exchanging messages that are offensive, harassing, obscene or threatening.
- visiting web sites containing objectionable (including pornographic) or criminal material
- exchanging any confidential or sensitive information held by your general practice
- creating, storing, or exchanging information in violation of copyright laws
- using internet-enabled activities such as gambling, gaming, conducting a business or conducting illegal activities
- creating or exchanging advertisements, solicitations, chain letters and other unsolicited or bulk email
- playing electronic or online games in work time.

Policy review statement

This policy will be reviewed regularly to ensure it reflects the current processes and procedures of Elermore Vale Medical Centre and current legislation requirements.